

Canada Cap Challenge
2020 Canadian Trapshooting Championships
Purse Rules

1. No Entry Fee.
2. Purse Cash Prize: $5500 (as of March 4, 2020).
3. Shooters must shoot the June 26th Preliminary Handicap event to be eligible for the Canada Cap Challenge.
4. The top 5 scores from each province or territory in the June 26th Preliminary Handicap event will determine the Provincial 5 Man Team.
5. Shooters will represent the province or territory they reside in. The only exceptions are;
  - I. In the event that 2 or more provinces or territories do not individually have 5 shooters in attendance, these shooters will be declared Team Canada and follow the standard team selection process outlined in these rules.
  - II. The Atlantic Provinces will complete as one province.
6. The winning Provincial 5 Man Team will be declared the Canada Cap Challenge Champions and reserve all bragging rights associated with the title.
7. The winning Provincial 5 Man Team will split the Canada Cap Challenge Purse evenly between team members.
8. Ties for Provincial 5 Man Team member selection and/or the main Canada Cup Challenge purse prize will be determined by carry-over to the Canadian Handicap Championship event.
9. Any shooter involved in a carry-over must shoot the Canadian Handicap Championship event from their current assigned yardage and will advance according to any earned yardage received in the June 26th Preliminary Handicap event.
10. Carry-overs will be based on each sub event (25 targets) and continue until all ties are broken.
11. Ties between Provincial 5 Man Teams will be settled using the combined team score per sub event (25 targets) during the Canadian Handicap Championship event.
12. Should a tie still exist upon the completion of the Canadian Handicap Championship event, a shoot-off will be held until a winning team is determined.
13. The Canada Cap Challenge organizing committee will oversee the Canada Cap Challenge. All decisions are final.
14. Jesse Smith (AB) will chair the 2020 Canada Cap Challenge.
